SUB: Webinar on "Recent Changes in Advanced Authorisation Scheme: Analysis and Implications".

Dear Members,

Advance Authorisation Scheme (AAS) is an important scheme for exporters who need to import raw materials to manufacture export goods. There have been some changes in the scheme as well as some landmark judgements by the Courts in recent times.

To discuss the changes and implications, AEPC in collaboration with Lakshmikumaran & Sridharan Attorneys is organizing a webinar on "Recent Changes in Advanced Authorisation Scheme: Analysis and Implications".

The webinar will highlight/discuss the following:-

- Pre-import condition as introduced under the Foreign Trade Policy.
- Issues (being) faced by various manufacturer-exporters and litigation arising therefrom.
- Analysis and Implication of decision of the Supreme Court
- Issues related to Special Advance Authorisation Scheme (SAAS)
- Suggestions and the way forward.

Lakshmikumaran & Sridharan Attorneys is a law firm based in India. The firm has 14 offices and over 400 professionals specializing in areas such as corporate & commercial laws, dispute resolution, taxation and intellectual property.
